

Webster University awards credit for the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP). Specific information about CLEP exams is available on the College Board website.

Webster University, St. Louis serves as a testing center for CLEP. Please contact the Testing Center at 314-246-8225 for more information. If you choose to take the test elsewhere, simply direct the scores to Webster. The College Board/CLEP code for Webster University is 6933.

Prior to completing a CLEP exam, it is recommended that you discuss this with your academic advisor. There are many factors to consider, such as how it will apply toward degree requirements, potential duplication of credit, or whether certain upper-level courses completed may restrict any additional lower-level credit (particularly in languages).

Webster University faculty reviews the content of the CLEP exams to determine course equivalents and required scores. The following chart provides a list of CLEP exams considered for credit at Webster.

* Before transferring CLEP credit, you may wish to contact the Department of International Languages & Cultures to ask about their Recognition Credit. This option grants Webster credit you can use towards a minor in French, German, or Spanish. Call the department office at 314-968-7047 for more information.

 The CLEP science exams do not offer laboratory components, therefore cannot be considered equivalent to courses in the Biological Sciences department at Webster which require labs.
